They can't spend their whole lives running from love...

Jo

I can't get hurt again. I fell in love once a long time ago, and I almost didn't survive it. I'm not sure I can go through that again, but every time Colton walks into this bar, I feel myself giving into him a little bit more. I've worked so hard to make my life safe. To never do anything I might someday regret.

But when it comes to Colton, I'm not sure how much longer I can resist him.

Colton

I'm the life of the party. The guy you come to when you want to have a good time, no strings attached. But what if I want more? Jo is the most beautiful, most complicated woman I've ever met in my life. She's also my boss. And no matter how hard I try to break through the walls she's built around herself, she keeps putting them right back up.

I'm determined to get to know the real Jo, and while I'm not giving up any time soon, I only hope I can be the man she needs me to be when the time comes.

Jo hides from everyone and everything, terrified of getting hurt again. Colton is an open book, scared of never finding the one connection that will be strong enough to last. When tragedy strikes and they are both left reeling in its wake, will they learn to lean on each other? Or will the fear of regret and pain push them apart forever?

Great read, loved it!

By Lstokes

I love all of Sarra Cannon's series. Most of which are paranormal (which is my typical reading genre), this Fairhope series being the one that is more of a regular romance series. Each book in the series focuses on a new male and female lead character from the series, which I love following the whole group of friends. A Life With No Regrets follows Jo, who is the daughter of the local bar's owner. We only catch glimpses of her in the other books, and its interesting to learn of her background as well as Colton's. It's a great read if you read the rest of the series. If you haven't, start with book 1.

If I could rate higher than 5 I would!

By Tami

First off, I received an ARC in exchange for an honest review.

Sarra Cannon never ceases to amaze me! This book had me laughing and crying like a baby, and some situations hit a little close to home. While I had never read any of the other Fairhope books, I was quickly hooked! Needless to say, I WILL be reading the rest of them as well.

This book made me feel like I could live in Fairhope, and be friends with these characters! You will not be disappointed with this that's for sure! But grab some tissues because you WILL need them.

Get yourself some good vibes from this full-of-depth romance!

By Kelly Grace

I received an ARC copy of this book for an honest review.

Wow. I just finished reading this and have been on an emotional rollercoaster. I generally find non-paranormal books can be a bit boring and have a hard time really investing myself in them, but this is an exception. This book was full of heart. It's told from the point of view of our two main characters, Colton and Jo. I find that often when authors do this the characters turn out to sound/feel the same. Colton and Jo are very different and that comes across loud and clear, which is great! I really felt I was getting to know both of them. Most of the characters in this book are fleshed out enough that they feel like REAL people with all the foibles and quirks that people have. There were times while reading that I wanted to shout at the characters and give them a shake!

I don't want to give anything away, but this author was able to bring some serious issues into this book and really twist them into the story, which also made it more real. If you read this book, you will FEEL this book, and isn't that a wonderful thing when you've immersed yourself into another life?
