Alpha

By Jeremy Spaulding

Alpha Big Time is a solo book for a new character that debuted in Spider Man. While it is nice to get new characters, this one does little to stand out from the pack. There is room for growth, if they decided to do more.

I liked this collection more than I thought I would. A lot more.

By Matt Anderson

Collects Alpha: Big Time issues #1-5

The character Alpha debuted in Amazing Spider-Man issue #692. Much like Peter Parker, this teenage boy received his powers from a science accident. Spider-Man became a mentor to him, but it appeared that he lost his powers and that his hero's journey had come to an end.

However, it seems that his journey had only just begun because the Superior Spider-Man helps him get his powers back in this volume. Alpha's power-set is huge. Reminiscent of Superman, Alpha can do basically anything. In this volume he starts to make a new life for himself in a new city. Even though this isn't an origin story, it definitely feels like the hero's true beginning.

I liked this collection more than I thought I would. A lot more. I would have liked to have read more in this series, but it was cancelled after only 5 issues.

Final rating = 3.5 stars
