Fun and Exciting Read! Great new author!!

By BoileRx

Really a great read by an up-and-coming author. I found myself really getting lost within it, laughing with the characters, and feeling heartbreak with them. Can't help but wish I could find my own Blake somewhere! I honestly couldn't put it down, and I hope there is more to come!! As the weather starts to get warmer, it would make a great beach read!

It was good..SPOILERS

By Amazon Customer

First off, I do not see him as a cheater. He made out with the heroine and felt guilty and told her he had a girlfriend within 16% of the book. He fell in love with her and vice versa. I do think that when he decided to be with the heroine, he should have told her that he had yet to break it off with his girlfriend but was headed to his hometown that weekend to do it. The heroine had no idea that he was still with his girlfriend, even if only in theory. He had been with the g/f for 6 years and decided she needed to be told in person, which I thought was super nice of him. Because he forgot to do this, he was having the honeymoon phase of the relationship where everything revolves around that one person, he ended up getting caught by the heroine. She broke up with him and went and gave a guy a "bj" and then the hero ends up begging and pleading for forgiveness and for a second chance. Yes, the hero messed up but the heroine spent the time since finding out he was with his girlfriend by a picture on Facebook to break up with her, thinking he slept with her instead of asking what happened. I think they should be square because she ended up doing something worse with another guy the same week she ended things with the hero. Just so you know, no one was with more than one person at a time. The girlfriend did not live in the same town. I actually liked him and liked her until she turned somewhat slutty towards the end. This is probably a confusing review but if you want a descent read, then go buy it.

I loved this book!

By lisa niedergeses

To be honest, I was not expecting to love this book. I was not expecting it to stand out from so many other novels about boys and girls and love and sex. But this book is SO smartly written and so engaging. I wanted to read it again as soon as I had finished. Cheers to Ms. Kelleigh! Keep them coming!
