About the Author

My mother tells me I was born a very long time ago, but I'm not so sure--my mother can't be trusted. These things I do know: I was raised in Texas on barbeque, Mexican food and beer. I am the author of Wanna Get Lucky? (A NY Times Notable Crime Novel and double RITA™ Finalist), its five sequels, Lucky Break being the latest, and four between-the-books novellas. Currently I'm stretching my writer muscles working on a women's fiction/contemporary romance series set in Napa, a dark thriller, a romantic suspense series featuring a female helicopter pilot, as well as the next Lucky adventure--all very different projects. So, if you see me with a glass of Champagne in hand, you'll understand. I can usually be found at the bar, but also at deborahcoonts.com.

Gotta love Lucky

By Andrea Castillo-McAleer

This is one in a series of Lucky O'Toole novels by Deborah Coonts and I will readily admit to awaiting the next one.

I love Lucky. She is the "go to" lady for the Babylon Casino in Las Vegas and makes sure everything is running smoothly from Sci-Fi conventions to high rollers with crazy requests.

This specific novel has old grudges, homemade bombs, mafia bad guys. Lucky's love life takes a dive with the demise of Teddie, not literally but figuratively (read and find out why) and the beginning of a very sexy French chef with a painful past.

I would highly recommend to start at the first novel and read your way to Lucky Bang that way all of the interactions and wonderful characters get under your skin. From first to last they are: "Wanna Get Lucky," "Lucky Stiff," "So Damn Lucky," "Lucky in Love," and "Lucky Bang." (I believe the last 2 titles are available as only e-novellas).

There is always murder, mayhem, adrenaline and love mixed in with the Lucky novels and I always enjoy the ride and can't wait for the next.

I hope that you will give it a try as well, Lucky won't disappoint you.

Not one of her better books

By Deborah Miller

This is the first Lucky book that I haven't liked. While I realize it is a short story - the story itself never really developed - the author was too busy telling you who each of the characters were (which is needed, but not to the detriment of the story). And she ran out of space/pages before she could really flesh out the story.

Lucky Bang

By Kindle Customer

Totally boring, too many words, too much description and not enough action. The story drags and action doesn't really come until the end.
