How are there only 5 star reviews?!

By Amazon Customer

I thought the first book was the worst book I had ever read....until I read this one. Again this book has no details nor dialogue. It's a jumbled mess that jumps around without telling the reader much. Just the worst! Then let's discuss things that don't make sense. 1) Michigan who is engaged suddenly is a physco who harbors secret love for Blake and therefore kept up a pretend friendship with Katelyn who didn't even know Blake? What?!? 2) Michigan tells Blake the investigation will end after 48 hours because they don't have anything to go on. He believes her even though there was blood found. 3) Katelyn was an unknown geek but now suddenly she has stalkers galore? 4) Blake fights for their relationship until katelyn decides it's worth it then suddenly he's unsure? 5) there's a point where Blake tells katelyn he loves her "for the first time" but I distinctly remember at least 2 other times they've mentioned love to each other.

And that is where I stopped reading. Thank goodness I didn't pay for these books or I would have demanded my money back.

So Terrible

By Amazon Customer

This book is terrible. It reads like a poorly abridged version of an awful novel. The story line is choppy and doesn't make sense, doesn't flow well. I couldn't even finish and it is very short.

Great Romance Suspense

By JaniceK

This series has me on the edge of my seat. Love the twist and turns in this story. Hard to fathom who would want to bring harm to Katelyn, a college chem student? I love following Blake's quest to make the transition to the NFL. Really interesting to go through the draft with Blake. I'm rooting for Blake and Katelyn as they get ready to move beyond college. Highly recommend.
